067/18 – CFLC 13TH BIENNIAL EMPLOYER SUPPORT AWARDS PROGRAM

Ref: CANFORGEN 041/18 CRES 003/18 071730Z MAR 18

1. The Canadian Forces Liaison Council (CFLC) has delivered the awards program on behalf of DND since 1994. The program recognizes civilian employers and educators who display exceptional support for their Reservist employees or students, and is a method by which DND celebrates their contribution to the Defence Team. By releasing Reservist employees and students for operations or training, employers and educators across Canada directly support Canada's defence objectives, with full acceptance of the significant impacts to their business operations or academic programming. Examples of such impact include: rescheduling of exams, extensions to assignments, loss of employee expertise, as well as transition and training costs. Accordingly, the awards program acknowledges the commitment of employers and educators who support their Reservist employee or student, which fosters goodwill between the Reservist, the employer or educational institution, and enhances the operational excellence of the Canadian Armed Forces.

2. The 2017 award ended with 260 nominations received. I challenge Reservists and their chains of command to exceed the number of nominations in 2019. Therefore, all Reservists are strongly encouraged to nominate their employers or educational institution for an award under the subject program.

3. The 13th Biennial Employer Support Awards will be conducted in three phases:

- a. Phase One, submission of nominations and awards selection. This phase will occur through to 31 Dec 18. Following the formal selection, award recipients, their nominators, and the nominator's CO will be invited to participate in Provincial awards ceremonies;
- b. Phase Two, conduct of Provincial and Territorial awards ceremonies. This phase will occur from 1 Feb to 31 Mar 19. Each province will host a ceremony in a venue of distinction, where Canadian Armed Forces leaders, public officials and nominators will collectively recognize award recipients; and
- c. Phase Three, conduct of the 13th Biennial National Employer Support Awards Ceremony in Ottawa. National award recipients and their respective nominator will be invited to this prestigious event, where they will be recognized by DND officials and senior representatives of the Canadian Armed Forces chain of command.

4. Awards selection criteria. Awards will be presented to selected employers and educational institutions who have demonstrated support through a variety of formal and informal arrangements. Examples include: granting military leave for training and operations, adopting and maintaining a progressive military leave policy, and accommodating revised work schedules for Reservist employees or students assignments and examinations. Employers may be defined as company leaders, direct supervisors or team leaders.

5. Nomination deadline. While the deadline for the 2019 awards cycle is 31 Dec 18, nominators are strongly encouraged to submit nominations as early as possible. Nominations should be submitted online using the online form found at the following CFLC webpage:

<https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/cflc2019awards>

6. For questions regarding the 13th Biennial National Employer Support Awards Program or further information about the CFLC, visit www.cflc.forces.gc.ca.
